Re: Eleventh Annual
Securities Regulation Institute
University of California
January 25-27, 1984
Hotel del Coronado

Dear Bill:

This year I became Chairman of the Institute for the next five years. In that regard, I've been considering new ways to highlight the Institute and have come up with the idea of an after-dinner speaker at the speaker/spouse faculty dinner on Thursday, January 26, 1984. It's about time we started educating the faculty! I can think of no person more appropriate than yourself to inaugurate this development. Accordingly, on behalf of the University, I would like you to be the first speaker to the faculty (approximately 15-20 minutes) -- and on a topic of your choice other than securities laws. With your wide scope of interests and keen sense of humor, I know that your participation would be a big success. In addition, I am sure that seeing your old securities laws friends should be a lot of fun. As is customary, the University will pay all expenses for travel and hotel for you and Sophia. Please let me know at your earliest convenience whether you can fit us into your schedule.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,
